| 1.1 | Origins | The Ultimate Keeper League (UKL), alternatively known as ‘Keeper League’ or simply ‘Keeper’ was founded by Adam Worthington (now Coach and General Manager of the Vikings) in 2010. | The Ultimate Keeper League (UKL); is an "unincorporated not-for-profit association" which operates a major professional Fantasy Australian Rules Football Keeper League. Currently there are ten (10) franchised member clubs, nine (9) located in the Perth, Western Australia (including one (1) with dual-residence in London, England) and one (1) Located In New York City, United States of America (USA). Headquartered in Perth, Western Australia the UKL is widely considered to be the premier professional Fantasy Australian Rules Football Keeper League in Australia and one of the major professional Fantasy Keeper Leagues in the Universe. The youngest professional Fantasy Keeper League trophy in the southern hemisphere, the XXXXXX, is awarded annually to the league champion at the end of each UKL Premiership Season. |
| 1.2 | Administration | The UKL Co-Commissioners for 2014 onwards are Adam Worthington and Chris Camporeale (hereby referred to collectively as the UKL Commissioner). The Deputy UKL Commissioner for 2014 onwards is Mark Lister. The UKL Treasurer for the 2014 season onwards is Andrew Owen. The UKL Rules and Regulations Administrator for the 2014 season onwards is Gavin Casey. The UKL Media Manager for the 2014 season onwards is Scott Cleaver. | The UKL was originally established with no official UKL Commissioner, however as the league was founded by Adam Worthington and a large majority of the administrative functions of the UKL have, since its establishment, been undertaken by Chris Camporeale (with assistance from Mark Lister) the obvious choice was to establish ‘Co-Commissioner’ Roles as of the adoption of these Rules and Regulations. The UKL Co-Commissioners shall each be known as ‘His Lordship UKL Commissioner Wortho’ and ‘His Lordship UKL Commissioner Campo’ or simply ‘Wortho’ and ‘Campo’ respectively. The Deputy UKL Commissioner will assume the roles and responsibilities of the UKL Commissioner in their absence, from time to time and as required. This includes, but is not limited to, the administrative functions of the league, clarification of player and team scoring, draft related duties and running of Official UKL events. |
| 1.3 | UKL Commissioner | The UKL Commissioner can only make decisions and directives in accordance with these rules and regulations. The UKL Commissioner may be required, from time to time to make decisions and directives, where an absolute majority cannot be reached on various matters in accordance with these Rules and Regulations. | The UKL Commissioner is responsible for the calendar of events during the pre-season (trade period, player retention and draft), administrative functions of the UKL website including but not limited to, player lists, trade notices, draft order, and any function required to ensure the smooth operation of the UKL Premiership Season. This to occur in a diligent and expedient manner (subject to other commitments). The UKL Commissioner may, at any time and without the formal approval of all UKL Coaches, delegate his administrative powers to, or seek assistance from the Deputy UKL Commissioner Mark Lister, or any other UKL Coach, as he sees fit. Said Deputy UKL Commissioner or UKL Coach, shall undertake these duties in accordance with |

| 9.1 | Trades | For pre-determined periods, prior to each of the Pre-Season and Mid-Season Drafts, any two or more coaches can agree to a trade of players and/or Draft picks. | Trades including draft picks may include future Draft Picks. |
| 9.2 | | No trades will be permitted prior to or following the conclusion of the allocated trade period. | |
| 9.3 | | There is no restriction on the number of players or teams involved in any trade, provided that no trade is to result in any team exceeding the squad size. | Senior list size is 28 Senior Listed Players (plus 2 Rookie Listed Players) prior to the commencement of the round immediately following the Draft. |
| 9.4 | | Notification of all proposed trade(s) is to be supplied to all coaches and the UKL Commissioner immediately following the conclusion of said trade. | Should notification not be possible immediately following the conclusion of the trade, notification must follow within a reasonable time period, but that time period is not to exceed 12 hours. |
| 9.4 | | Should any coach, including coaches not party to the trade, believe that the proposed trade is not in accordance with the UKL Rules and Regulations, or unfairly benefits one or more teams, that coach may lodge an objection. The trade will subsequently be referred to the UKL Trade Approvals Panel. | The UKL Trade Approvals Panel will consist of Tyson Sudjovich, Michael Donovan, Timothy Donovan, Matt Craig and Kyle Putland. The UKL Commissioner may substitute or exclude a member of the UKL Trade Approvals Panel should the UKL Commissioner determine that a member of the Panel has a conflict of interest or has any other reason that might affect their perceived fairness. |
| 9.5 | | UKL Trade Guidelines are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trades should generally be supported and should only be refused where it is clear that the guidelines are not being met. • Trades should benefit both teams in that season (refer to clarification). • Overall, the trade, should generally be considered to be of equal value, but may have different roles. Draft picks, including future draft picks may be included to ensure equality. • No financial incentives are to be involved. • Rookies may only be traded for other rookies or Rookie Draft pick(s). | The trading of Draft picks must include a commitment to de-list a player(s) to ensure that squad sizes are not exceeded. Where a trade is not considered to immediately benefit both teams equally, it may be argued, by the team obtaining the lesser benefit from the trade, that based on ladder position, intention or hope to play finals in that year as opposed to coming years, that the trade will ultimately reap a benefit considered to be equal to, the traded player, players AND/OR draft picks. |
| 9.6 | | The UKL Trade Approvals Panel will meet (if possible) to discuss and vote prior to the commencement of the impending draft to determine if the trade meets the UKL Trade Guidelines. The trade will be refused if more than one member of the Panel believes that the proposed trade is not in accordance with the UKL Trade Guidelines. | The Panel is to advise all other coaches of the outcome of decision of the UKL Trade Approval Panel and the details of any refused trades. |
| 9.7 | | The UKL Trade Approvals Panel will not be swayed by personal feelings in relation to a particular trade and will make an unbiased decision in consideration of all trades subject to review. | |
| 9.8 | | Should either of the trading parties feel aggrieved by the decision of the UKL Trade Approvals Panel they may request a review the decision. | The UKL Commissioner will only reverse the decision of the UKL Trade Approval Panel when it is clear that they have acted in an unbiased manner. |
| 10.1 | Dispute Resolution | All disputes and potential rules violations will be referred to the UKL Tribunal. | The UKL Tribunal will be made up of the UKL Commissioner and one of the UKL Administration (based on rotation) as well as two (2) UKL Coaches not subject of the dispute (based on rotation).
